

Content writing portfolio (+ a little copy)

- 1. Social media posts – Conversion Club is a Facebook page about affiliate marketing and conversion. They needed help with publishing more engaging posts, so this is where I stepped in: I come up with suitable posts ideas and then write them. Here you can read a couple of social media posts I wrote so far (during a 3 months collaboration):

If freelance has been the biggest adventure of my life, writing has been my boat. Writing is perfect for introverted people who can easily express their feelings or ideas without having to talk.
